The designA Arovides simple branding and encourages campus units to provide onlyA Anecessary contact information. The only aspect of the one-column layout that should be altered is theA Acontent respective to the individual. Business card, compliment slip, envelop and letterhead is the key elements of corporate branding.A AWeA Aare already showcased lots ofA Abusiness logo design and business cardsA Athat will help you to spark creative ideas for your branding or visual identity projects. Unlimited Downloads Over 1,500,000+ Fonts, Mockups, Freebies & Design Assets Beautiful collection of branding, visual identity and Astationery designsA Afor your inspiration.A AAll examples are simply amazing. Margins, text size, text weight, leading, AAcolors and the university logo are not to be altered. ToA Athis end, the university makes two front designs and two back designs available. Front design one: two-column layout The two-column layout works best for individuals with short email addresses. Business cards The William & Mary business card must accommodate differences in length of name, variation in number of titles and inclusion of additional contact information. In the horizontal single-lineA Alogo design, the unit name and contact information appears on the right side of the header in black sans-serif type. Back design two: website only The website only design should only be altered to change the specific web address (if desired). Back design one: website with contact information The back of the William & Mary business card is designed to make a visualA Aimpact. The footer is reserved for a message or tagline associated with that campus unit. The only aspect of the two-column layout that should be altered is theA Acontent respective to the individual. Business cards may be ordered from Virginia Correctional Enterprises through eVA or three additional printing including the W&M Print Shop. Campus units are strongly encouraged toA Athoughtfully limit the amount of contact information provided rather thanA Acluttering the page with all possible forms of contact information. information.
